On a different note, the Trestle-Board will be a bit different this month as we are all staying home, participating in the latest "Social Distancing" and starting to climb the walls. Be not disheartened, this too shall pass.

The Grand Lodge has issued some good advice, not just in the written form, but also on "facebook" in a video. I've sent both to my email list so you should have a copy to look at during your time of leisure. If you get this via email, you should have received both by now, if not, let me know. If you tell me, it will get corrected, if you tell everyone else, nothing positive gets accomplished.

When events return to normal, we have an E.A. (Bro. Tony Votta) ready to give back his lesson and we have a M.M (Dave Boylan) who is also ready to give his back, so keep that in mind when things cool off a bit.

I'm keeping the website up-to-date as items come across my desk. If something is missing, again, tell me. 😊

On a happier note, Brotherhood has created a storage room for us. Hopefully I can move our "stuff" from my garage, and Buzz's, which will make it a bit easier for us all.

Stay safe, stay healthy and pray for those on the front line of defense.

Fraternally,

Slim
